Conference Banquet at Uppsala Castle

The conference banquet will take place at Uppsala Castle at 19:00. Building on the royal castle started in 1549 under Swedish king Gustav Vasa. The castle played a major role in the history of Sweden. It was reconstructed after it burned to the ground in a fire in 1702. Today it houses 3 museums, all well worth a visit: Uppsala Art Museum, House of Peace and Vasaborgen.

The castle is located about 15 minutes walking distance from the main conference building, on the other side of the city center and the river.
General Assembly Meeting ETAPS e.V.

At 13:00, European Joint Conferences on Theory and Practice of Software - ETAPS - e. V. will hold its general assembly meeting to elect a new board. ETAPS e.V. is a non-profit association and the legal entity behind the ETAPS conference series. Membership is open to anyone. It includes free online access to the Springer LNCS proceedings of the ETAPS conference series. See https://etaps.community for further information.

Museum Gustavianum

At the conference opening on Monday, Prof. Johan Tysk, vice rector of Uppsala University’s faculty of Science and Technology, encouraged ETAPS participants to visit Museum Gustavianum.

Gustavianum, with the Anatomical Theatre forming the distinctive cupola crowning the roof, is located next to the Uppsala Cathedral. Its exhibits include the Augsburg Art Cabinet, Viking swords, Egyptian mummies, historical scientific instruments, and much more.

We are grateful to all the sponsors who have provided support for the different conference activities. We greatly appreciate the help and assistance of the organizing committee, the team of Akademikonferens Uppsala, and all the student volunteers. Their contribution has been crucial for the preparation and organization of the event.
